Application for Leon Hostetler Memorial Fund Archaeological Field School Scholarship

Eligible applicants should use this form to request monies from the Indiana Archaeology Council's Leon Hostetler Memorial Fund (<https://indianaarchaeology.org/leon-hostetler-fund/>) to be used for attending an Indiana archaeological field school. Each applicant may submit one request no greater than a total of $ 500.00 per year.

Eligible applicants: Current college students (undergraduate or graduate) who wish to attend an archaeological field school conducted in Indiana.

Requirements:

- The archaeological field school must take place in Indiana and be conducted under the direction of a qualified archaeological Principal Investigator.
- The applicant must use this form to apply and complete all portions of this document.
- The form must be signed by the applicant and the qualified archaeological Principal Investigator who is scheduled to direct the field school.

Application process:

Applicants must complete and submit the application by the due date. All application materials should be compiled as a single PDF and emailed to Amy Johnson at archaeolj@gmail.com by the due date.

Members of the Indiana Archaeology Council Board of Directors will review the received applications and notify the awardee within three weeks of the application due date. The number of awards granted will be determined by the availability of funds.

Priority will be given to applicants who:

1. Have less field experience in archaeology.
2. Successfully explain their financial need to apply for the fund.
3. Provide a more detailed explanation of what they hope to gain by attending the field school.
4. Present a complete application.
